Obituary

Annette Wallace was born on March 3rd, 1961, to the late Howard Wallace and Hattie Ruth Felton Wallace. She was the last child of eight kids. She grew up in the Bed Stuy neighborhood of Brooklyn, New York. Annette attended Boys & Girls High School where she met most of her long-term friends.

Annette enjoyed partying, dancing and cooking. She was the life of the party. She was very generous and would give you her last of anything she had. Annette always opened her home to any and everyone.

In Annette's early thirties, she moved from Bed Stuy to Fort Greene Projects, (which is also a neighborhood in Brooklyn). She never lived in the projects before, so she had to adjust. She started working for the New York City Housing Authority in 1999 and retired in 2021.

Annette became ill on March 3rd, 2022; and recovered. She was called home on April 15, 2022.

Annette was preceded in death by her father, Howard, Sr., mother Hattie Ruth Felton Wallace; granddaughter Demaris Velez; brother Howard Wallace, Jr., sisters: Natalie Wallace and Sadie Wallace.

Annette leaves great memories with her three children: Larry Kareem Spencer, Saquan Lonnie Wallace and Aquira Tashika McInnis; ten grandchildren: CHASSIDY A'MIRACLE MCINNIS, Adore Dior Hayes, Larry Kareem Spencer, jr., Kahrell Prince Spencer, Elonnie Hattie May Wallace, Tamzin Klennie Wallace, Jonathan Perkins, Allennycia Wallace and Aaliyah Logan; her sisters: Deborah Wallace, Regina walters, Rochelle Wallace and Sandra Pressley. Annette also leaves her goddaughter Shatonya Parson. Annette will also be missed by her co-workers, friends and family.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
