Obituary

Anolta Chaunte Matthews was born on January 26th 1988 in the midst of a blizzard in the Bronx at Lincoln Hospital to her mother Roslyn King and Marcus Matthews. She was the 3rd oldest of her siblings Tyasha, Damein, Charles and Tracy.

Anolta began her education at the school for the talented and gifted in Harlem, New York. Upon her relocation to Middletown NY. She continued her studies in the Enlarged City School District of Middletown NY and graduated from Middletown High School.

Anolta was brought to the lord by her grandparents Johnnie and Nannie Bell. She attended and was a member of ST. Paul's church in Middletown NY. Where she sat under the instruction and guidance of Bishop Ray King and his wife Yolanda King. As a minister in training. She served in the body of Christ in many capacities. From usher, women's and junior ministry. Her calling was the ministry of outreach. She found great joy in helping others. As she grew in ministry God led her to OACC (One Accord Christian Church) to sit under the teaching of Bishop Robert Bolton and His wife Pastor Lashelle Bolton. She spent many hours there in prayer, praise dancing, overseeing and managing the audio and video department. She loved her church families and she loved the Lord.

She was married to Craig Lassiter. Of this union a beautiful and gifted son was born. Cartier Akeem Lassiter was born on august 7th 2016. As she did with each task she undertook. Anolta put her heart and soul into loving, nurturing and most importantly pouring into her son the word of God. She was a loving and devoted mother.

Anolta had a fun loving, kind, caring and generous spirit. She was compassionate and always willing to assist and advise others in life's challenges. Anolta will be remembered for having a big heart, being a strong straightforward woman of God who respected others and demanded the same.

Anolta was multi-talented and gifted. Everything she set her mind, heart and hand to do she did with a zeal of passion. Whether it was creating her own jewelry, doing hair and makeup or new cooking recipes she gave it her all. Anolta's greatest love and passion was being a mother to her only son Cartier.

She leaves to rejoice in her home-going her loving son Cartier A. lassiter. Her parents Rosyln King and Marcus Matthews; Step-mother, Terry Matthews Grandparents Vernita walker, Johnnie and Nannie bell; Sisters, Tyasha walker and Tracy King ; Brothers, Damein Pendleton, Charles Hackett J.R., Tony, and Vincent Sorino; Uncle Reese Walker; Brother-in-law, Edward Burris; Sister-in-law, Ashely, katrina Wolf and Nicole Sorino; Nieces, Jennice, Lynnise, Nia, Oliva Sorino and Cataleya Sorino; Nephews, Lanell, Shimere, Journee, Qwess Ethan Sorino and Vincenzo Sorino; Childhood friends, Everett Sanders, Wayne Hasbrouck, Maureen Annette, Mochie Merchant, Dominique Holley and Shakuwra Mcfadden-Bradham; Saint Paul's Family and One accord Christian church family; and a host of cousins and friends.

*Hillside Cemetery
Middletown, New York*

Repast
OACC following committal at grave site

*Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am in a thousand winds that blow,
I am the softly falling snow.
I am the gentle showers of rain,
I am the fields of ripening grain.
I am in the morning hush,
I am in the graceful rush
Of beautiful birds in circling flight,
I am the starshine of the night.
I am in the flowers that bloom,
I am in a quiet room.
I am in the birds that sing,
I am in each lovely thing.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there. I do not die.*
