Obituary

Faye Ann Steward, known to many as “Fabulous Faye”, was born on July 17th, 1951, in Brooklyn, New York to Sarah and William Steward. She was born one of eight. Faye was educated through Brooklyn, New York public schools and graduated from Wingate High School. She then worked as a Nurse’s Assistant with the New York City’s Examiner’s Office for many years from which she retired.

Faye was a fun-loving charismatic person, very strong-willed and independent. She was loved everywhere she went by all. She cherished every moment with her children and grandchildren. Oh, and let us not forget how Fabulous Faye would enjoy shopping to stay so fabulous. Hopefully you have had the pleasure of tasting some of her wonderful cooking.

Faye had five children, Norson “Champ” Steward, Corey “Skip” Steward, Randy Steward, Nathaniel “Joey” Steward and finally her baby girl, India Lassiter. Being a single mother of five children, Faye always felt she had to display strength, which she instilled in each one of her children. Reminding them to always take care of themselves. Faye shared so many wonderful and unforgettable times with all of her children. She especially enjoyed having them all together for holidays and special occasions.

Faye was preceded in death by: her son, Randy Steward; her three brothers, William Steward III, Frederick Steward, and Robert Steward; her three sisters, Jacqueline Peterson, Mary Smith and Sharon Cole. Faye departed this life on Saturday, April 16, 2022.

Faye leaves to cherish in her memory: her children, Champ, Skip, Joey and India; his grandchildren, Shanell, Corey Jr., Nathaniel Jr., Ijjiana, Jamel, Kendell, Tayden, Cassius, and Davon; her brother, Thomas Steward; and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
