Obituary

Annette Constant was born on Saturday May 30th 1925 on the island of Haiti in the Caribbean. She was a loving mother and enjoyed providing for her spiritual family. She was always yearning for truth and was happy to find the answers to her Biblical questions not from Preachers on TV but from the Bible. She studied the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses and dedicated her life to Jehovah via water baptism on January 4th 1975.

She was naturally frank and honest and equally caring. She loved spending time with all ages of people and gave her time and energy to her beloved ministry. She served as a zealous pioneer for many years and was a faithful partner to many. Her humble demeanor wouldn't paint the full picture of how many she assisted in learning the Bible truths she held so dearly. Many consider her as a spiritual mother and great friend.

With Jehovah's blessing she was able to enjoy many years in the pioneer service despite health issues. She was a zealous teacher that used questions to touch her listener's heart and ever took credit but loved to direct the message to the Bible God's Word. Her health degraded in the years leading up to her passing but she was always thankful for what she had and did not focus on what she did not have for the moment. A phrase she repeated many times when asked how she was doing was "Mwen domi, mwen leve, mwen di Jewova Mesi"

Her excellent example of faith mimics those we find in Hebrews 11 like Joseph, Moses and Rahab.... Who seen Jehovah's active hand in their lives and fully understood he was with them. She is deeply remembered by those she met briefly and those who knew her "fen e byen" for decades

Annette's leaves to cherish her memories only son; Yves Jean Constant (Janice Constant) both residing in MA, Delaware and Nevada. Her grandsons; Jean-Charles Constant from MA and Delaware and Yves Jean Constant from MA (Massachusetts), great nephew; Zacary, great granddaughter; Serenity Eve Constant from MA. Sister-in-law; Paulette Constant, and nieces; Florie, Michele and Rose.

Annette was very much loved by her biological and spiritual family.
