Obituary

Daniel Chisolm was born on April 9, 1953 with his twin sister Diane Chisolm in Brooklyn New York to the parents Hubert Chisolm And Geneva (Ling) Chisolm. Both parents preceded him in death, along with his brothers Hubert (Hugh) Bubby Chisolm Jr. and Ronald Chisolm

Daniel attended P. S. 243, Junior High School and Benjamin N. Cardozo High School. He also attended York College, where he studied accounting, music and arts.

During his wonderful career span he worked 10 years with Young & Rubicam Ad Agency, 3 years with Robert Half Auditors, and MTA Bridges & Tunnels family.

Danny's love for music and dance will lead him into dedicating 25+ years to the Devore Dance Center, assisting his best friend Caroline Devore with managing the center in being an active participant. Everywhere Danny worked He was such a great asset and valuable employee. He created a family environment, very personable, and was loved by all his colleagues for this.

Danny was an MTA B&T employee. Danny was an active Member of the diversity committee who brought so much joy when he volunteered his time to help out with the many events our agency would have. He would be the entertainment with his phenomenal talent as a singer and dancer.

His best friend Caroline Devore she was a dancer at Bernice Johnson. When she opened up her own dance studio Danny became a member of her staff until his death.

Danny has many friends who loved him, he joined many churches, sang in the choirs, and also sang solos.

He last joined and was a member of Saint Albans deliverance Temple where he sang with the praise team and became a Deacon.

Danny was known for as many towns. Such as teaching hustle dance, dancing, singing, acting, modeling, bid whist player, and his love for Coney Island on the weekend to go dancing. He was also a sharp dresser a.k.a. Dapper Dan, with many hats and suits, let's not forget he was the king of selfies.

Daniel is survived by his twin sister Diane, his favorite awesome niece Janine Jones (fiancée) Alfred Romain, nephew Tywuan Kyser, niece Daira Hall (husband) Jeff Hall, twins niece and new ogre Taylor & Blake Chisolm, step-nephew Eli Zegeer, one sister-in-law Tina Pannell, great-niece Phoenix and nephew Xyenus Mangaroo, Along with a few of the great nieces And nephews, adopted sister Marie Thompson, best friend of Carolyn Devore, Stacey Williams, Melvin Blake, Derrick Marable and lots of cousins and friends.
