Obituary

Georgia Angela McIntosh was born on June 8th, 1959, to Wilbert McIntosh and Pearleta Cox. She was the second of eight children. Georgia was born in the St. Andrews Parish of Jamaica, West Indies, where she lived until her teenage years with her family.

At 15 years old, she came to the United States and settled in Queens, NY where she attended Andrew Jackson High School. While attending this school she met the love of her life, Alexander Davis (Webb) who became her husband and father of her three children Donovan, Makeda and Daniel Davis. Sadly, in 1986, Georgia's husband was tragically killed, devastating her and leaving her to raise their three children alone. Despite this tragedy Georgia kept a positive attitude, held onto her faith in God and devoted the rest of her life to her family which was her entire world.

Georgia worked very hard to support her family. She loved her most recent job working as a Fine Jewelry Sales Associate in the Macys, Rego Park, Queens location where she worked for many years. She loved her team and customers and had friends there who she truly considered family.

Georgia loved life and wanted to live as long as she could for her family whom she loved deeply. She had a fiery, quick-witted personality that everyone who knew her came to know and love. She loved God, loved to laugh and dance, watching tv and following her family on social media. She lived by the sayings, "It's not that serious," and "To God Be The Glory!" Georgia had the kindest, most giving heart of an Angel. She is missed beyond measure.

On April 20th, 2022, Georgia joined her father Wilbert McIntosh and brothers Courtney and Paul McIntosh in Heaven.

She is survived by her beloved children-Donovan, Makeda and Daniel, her granddaughter Merhanda Pierre and her great grandson Enzo Pierre whom she help raised.

She also leaves behind her mother Pearleta Hamilton, sisters Jennifer McIntosh, Sandra McIntosh, Antionette (Tonie) Restrepo, and Carlene McIntosh, brother Carl McIntosh, 6 additional grandkids- Kiara, Brianee, Kaydan, Daniel, Shakim and D'Naiya, 2 additional great grandkids, a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins (Hakim, Fayola, Shamoy, Yakeem, Najha, Lynn, Ken etc.) as well as her extended family dear to her heart- Herman, Diedra, Cheryl, Erik, Les, Katie, Noah, Keisha, Tanya, Princess Lynn, Diane and Angela.
