Obituary

Mrs. Marie Jones was born on August 4th in Sumter, North Carolina. Her mother, Rosa Lee Wright and her father, Arron Williams were devoted members of the community.

Marie moved to Harlem, New York, and went to Central Commercial High School. After graduating, she was employed at many places. She worked at a police station, she worked for Harlem Community Org., she was a stern Girl Scout Leader, and she worked for IBM for over 20 years.

Marie was married to her late husband Otcie Jones. They moved to Laurelton, Queens with their two daughters, Denise and Michelle, and their son, Murice.

After her retirement, she continued working. She worked for Citibank and then for a foster care agency. She also sold Avon for a very long time.

Mrs. Jones was a born leader, fighter, and would stand up to make a difference in so many places. Her favorite phrase was, "DO THE RIGHT THING".

Mrs. Jones was survived by: her daughter, Michelle; her son-in-law, Courtney; her grandsons, Michael and Demetri; great granddaughters, Mia, Nemayia, Taurmayia, and Navaeh; and grandson, Sir Felipe; and a host of other family and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
