Obituary

During a quiet time in the city of Newark, NJ on April 25 an angel named Al-Terek K. Cox affectionately known as Terek or Reek received his wings.

Born to the late Earl (Barry) and Sheila Kornegay Cox on June 28, 1985. Al-Terek graduated from the Maple Avenue School in Newark and attended Hillside High in Hillside, NJ.

Terek was a man of Love. Growing up his grandmother always dressed him up. At the age of 2 he always wanted to wear a suit, entertaining family as a preacher. That was his dream at Living Water New Life Ministries, under the leadership of his uncle Bishop Leon Kornegay. He served as an usher.

Getting in his car all you would hear is gospel music, Kirk Franklin, Yolanda Adams, Tye Tribett, Hezekiah Walker. His favorite song was “Never Would Have Made It”. He loved to sing.

Al-Terek was a business man going by the name of Cake Boy. He was a car salesman, could tint car windows and he did snow plowing. When you called him he did the job with a smile and he always had something nice to say.

He loved his Family. At Reunions, cousin party's and at Christmas time Terek and his cousin Rasheen were the life of the party always with a joke or something funny to keep you laughing.

All the children loved him they called him Terek and Uncle Reek. His word to the the kids was ‘Stay in School’.

Al-Terek had 3 pit bulls that he trained very well. When he would whistle they would all stop on a dime, their names were Messiah, Blossom and Buttercup. That was Terek a man we all loved.

Al-Terek was predeceased by his father, Earl (Barry) Cox, mother Sheila Kornegay Cox and sister Kashida Ruth Ann Cox.

Al-Terek leaves to cherish his memories a brother Rahjon Malik Cox (Sharaye), Aunt/Mom Lorraine Kornegay Gardner (Martin), uncles Andre Cox, Ron Kornegay (Linda), Bishop Leon Kornegay (Sandra), nieces and nephews Shi"an, Shamar, Jaquan, Tanasia, Tanaya, Rahjon Malik Cox, Jr. and a special cousin Nakeya M. Gardner and a host of cousins and friends. His special Lady Carolyn Warren.

Our Hearts

A Tribute to Al-Terek

*No one can take your place,
We will miss your loving tender face,
No more suffering, no more pain,
But in our Hearts you will remain,
We love you Al-Terek, so take your rest,
Because we know God love you Best.
Love the Family,*
