Biography

Marlo Selby was born on June 10, 1961, at Kings County Hospital in Brooklyn, New York. He was born to the late Vernell Henry and Harvey T. Selby. He attended Park West High School in Manhattan, NY. He began his lifelong career for the city of New York in Hygiene. In 1989, he met the love of his life the late Barbara Ann Scott. Out of that union, they created five beautiful, intelligent, and strong children. Marlo never missed a moment in his children's lives. He found joy in life by taking care of his children and being by their sides. He was a proud father of three college graduates, a college student, and an entrepreneur.

Marlo was a revert of Islam and accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior at age 42. He then became a member of Lively Stone Church underneath Elder Scott.

Marlo was big hearted, and kind spirited. He had nothing but the best intentions for those around him, especially his children. In Marlo's younger years he was very athletic, outgoing, and charming. He enjoyed cooking for his loved ones whatever he could get his hands on. Most of all he loved having a great time.

Marlo was preceded in death by his parents, Harvey T. Selby and Vernell Henry, the love of his life, Barbara Scott, his sisters, Faye Henry, Joyce Eely, and his brother, Anthony Henry. He will be missed by all who knew him. Marlo leaves to cherish his memories: his loving sons, Marlo and Kaishawn Scott; daughters, Shanasia Selby, Nyasia Selby and Asia Selby; his aunts, Helen Selby, Dolores Selby, and Jean Selby; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

His Journey Has Just Begun

His Journey's Just Begun
Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched.
for nothing loved is ever lost
and he was loved so much.
