Obituary

The life of Linda Denise Cunningham began on December 13, 1961. She was born by the union of the late Robert Perry and Elaine Cunningham at Jacobi Hospital in Bronx, New York.

Linda grew up and lived over half of her life on Mapes Ave in the Bronx along with her great grandparents, mother, father, 5 sisters, children, nieces, nephews and cousins. She attended the neighborhood elementary school, junior high and went to Grace Dodge High School. She didn't complete high school but she did get her GED and attended Metropolitan College of New York. While attending M.S. 129 junior high, she took dance lessons. Linda and her dance team members went on to perform shows in front of their entire school and community. She was well known as a top dancer and was favored like a daughter by her dance teacher.

Linda worked various jobs during her early years. But, during her later years she worked several years as a Scheduler/Data Entry Specialist for Americare Inc and as a Case Manager Technician/Community Follow Up Worker for Heartshare Human Services of New York.

Her life was one of love and lots of laughter. Linda was full of humor, almost always smiling, laughing, had a passion for helping others and gave really good advice. She was very loving, sweet, kind, caring, understanding and had a very good heart. Linda loved being around family, making people laugh, dancing, singing, listening to music, EATING and mimicking people (all in fun) in which she was very good at by the way. LINDA WAS A DANCING MACHINE and a few of her favorite dance songs were "Get Up Offa That Thing" by James Brown and "Now That We Found Love" by Heavy D & The Boyz. Lastly, she had a lot of faith in our God Jehovah and loved to read the bible.

Unfortunately, Linda's beautiful soul left us and this world on Monday, April 25, 2022 in Bronx, New York. She was one of a kind and will be greatly missed by her family. She leaves behind her son: Lavar Parron, daughter: Ellatisha Parron, granddaughters: Cristal Parron, Samauri McMillan, Shamiya Parron and Nekyirah Parron, Sisters: Monique Cunningham, Jeanette Cunningham, Phyllis Carr and Adrienne Edwards, Aunt: Ellen Orciani, nieces, nephews and cousins.

Recessional

Our Mom

Our mom gave us the world
Put it right at our feet
And with her at our side
There is nothing we cannot beat

Our mom was a woman
Who taught us to never lose sight
Though times may seem helpless
She taught us how to fight

She shown us how
Through times of much sorrow
To look to the future
And new days of tomorrow

Even though times may be hard
And all we feel is pain
Remember, this too shall pass
Even the clouds and the rain

So it is with heavy hearts
And tears in our eyes
That we lay her down to rest
And say our last goodbyes

Days when Life looks darkest
And you don't know what to do,
Keep looking up and trust Him
And He will take care of you.

“We cannot always understand why things happen as they do. But it is comforting to know Jehovah God will take care of you”.

Lovingly submitted,
The Parron/Cunningham Family

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to thank all of you for your prayers, messages of comfort and the many other acts of kindness shown during our hour of bereavement. May God continue to bless you in a very special way.
