Obituary

Willie Macon was born on September 3, 1942, in Warrenton, NC to the late William Kearney and the late Annie Bell Williams Kearney. On April 28, 2022, she departed this life at Saint Barnabas Hospital in Livingston, NJ.

Willie was educated in the North Carolina school system. She graduated from Essex County College in Newark, NJ where she received a degree in Business.

She relocated to New York and several years later to New Jersey. Willie was joined in marriage to Fred Macon who preceded her in death.

Willie was employed as a seamstress until she retired.

Willie dedicated her life to her family. She helped take care of family members when they were ill or needed help. She loved family gatherings, shopping, watching TV and playing bingo. Willie was a philanthropist who donated to different charities such as the Cancer Society, Disabled Veterans National Foundation and more.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories, sister, Annie Davis; brother, Michael Kearney (Brenda); sister-in-law, Annie Lee Kearney all of Newark, NJ. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

Willie was preceded in death by her parents, William Kearney and Annie Bell Williams Kearney, husband, Fred Macon; four sisters, Marie Hyman, Lulu Marrow, Celestine Alston, and Martha Harris; five brothers, Robert and James Hyman, William Jr. (Mable), George and Richard Kearney.

Come To Me

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes
And whispered "Come to me"
The days of toil and nights of pain
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her
And saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best
Eased her suffering, gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger
Round the place where she rests.
