

We Love You

Forever In Our Hearts

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
 My loved ones, oh so dear.
 But you see, the Master called me,
 His voice was very clear!
 I had made my reservation
 A heaven bound ticket for one,
 And I knew that He would call me
 When He felt my work was done.
 I know that your hearts are heavy
 Because I have gone away,
 But when the Master called me,
 I knew that I could not stay.
 Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
 My loved ones, oh so dear,
 But, you see, the Master called me
 And, now I'm resting here.
 Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
 And to you all I say
 Just stay in the hands of Jesus
 And we'll meet again someday.

Obituary

Clayon Renford Davis was born November 29, 1990, at the Jubilee Hospital located in Kingston, Jamaica to parents Sarah Sewell and Renford Davis. Clayon was the third child for his mother and the first and only child for his father. At the age of two, Clayon moved in with his grandmother and his two aunties, Joy and Bibs. He resided there up until the age of 16 years old.

At 3-years old, Clayon started preschool followed by the all-age school and then high school. Clayon was an outstanding child, always ahead of his peers and a leader always at the front. He demonstrated a big heart by defending his peers, family, friends and even his enemies. You could always count on Clayon in good times and in the bad. He was very rough on the outside but underneath, he was one of the most loving and caring people. He never ceased the opportunities to tell you out loud that he loved you.

In November 2008, Clayon migrated to the United States of America to live with his mother. He attended North Miami High School. Once in New Jersey, he then went to Job Camp Academy where he learned Electrical and HVAC. Clayon was a mechanic at heart, a skill he learned from his father. He loved fast cars, rap music, especially London Rappers, and would spend endless hours on YouTube watching Jamaican drag racing along with staying up to date on everything Hip Hop/ Rap related.

You knew he was around when you heard his voice screaming your name or through his loud, modified cars driving in the distance. His unique and distinct presence is missed in Irvington.

Three years after arriving in the United States, Clayon met and fell in love with Christina. This union produced a beautiful daughter, Kaylee Davis. Kaylee is the love of Clayon's life, he loved her deeply.

Clayon Davis, 31 years of age who resided in Irvington, New Jersey died April 22, 2022, from a gunshot wound. He is survived by Mother Sarah, Father Renford, daughter Kaylee, brother Martin, sisters Kenisha and Nicole, nieces and nephews Aniyah, Taniyah, Omaine, Davaine, and Oraine, uncles, aunties, cousins, other relatives, friends and devoted girlfriend Jennifer.

Clayon Davis you will be forever loved and missed.
