OBITUARY

Hugh Mansfield Pitter was born February 7, 1934, in Kingston, Jamaica West Indies. Born to Sir Phillip Pitter and Beatrice Jones He is the fourth of six children. A portion of his childhood was spent being raised by family in Westmorland where he farmed until about 17 years of age.

Hugh worked as a Plumber and worked at the Caribe Theater as well as the Sheraton Hotel in Jamaica. As he matured into manhood he met and married his wife Everith Gardiner Pitter Their union was blessed with their children Carmen and Karleen, Kenneth and Hanan. The family included his first-born daughter Sonia (Khadijah) and Keith, Everith's son.

In 1969, he arranged for his family to join him from Jamaica to the United States-Brooklyn, New York where he provided a home affectionately called "Lincoln Place".

Hugh held various positions in the states as an Armed Security Guard at Chase Manhattan Bank for many years. After retirement, he catered at the Marriot Hotel. Hugh attended Westminster Bethany Presbyterian Church as an active Elder, choir member and served on the Board of Trustees. He was well admired by his Pastor and fellow church members. He Then became a member of Grace Reform Church and served several years. He enjoyed singing in the choir for both churches.

He attended and graduated from Medgar Evers College in Brooklyn, NY. Hugh enjoyed culture to include visual and performing arts, crafts, photography, and music. Mr. Pitter, Uncle Cutie, Granddaddy and daddy as he was called by many, was a great cook, very supportive, loved being in the company of his siblings and family. Hugh was an awesome dresser; he had an admiration for style with his "three-piece suit and ting". He would always include a line of humor. Hugh always honored his Homeland of Jamaica; a noble member of the Jamaica Progressive League and has received several awards.

Preceded in death by his Father Phillip Pitter, Mother Beatrice Jones, Brothers Wendell, Sylvester, Hermerde, Daughter Sonia, grandson Keith, sons-in-law Desmond and Donavan.

Hugh leaves to Mourn and Shine his wife Everith Pitter, children Carmen Pitter, Karleen Somers, Kenneth Pitter and Hanan Dianne Ali. Grandchildren Terrance, Sharrone, Jovannie, Scott, Phillip, Jonathan, Joshua, Hussein, Sayyid, Amani and Kiara. Greatgrandchildren Shamel, Judah, Darrone, Amari, Amiyah and Brighton. His brother Ivan Pitter, sister Carmen Campbell and a host of beloved nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Hugh, you lived a full life and you loved to the fullest. You will always be remembered by all of us. May you find peace.

I'M FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
