Obituary

Henry "Terry" Williams was born on December 20, 1953 to Virginia and Mingo Williams Sr. at Flowers Hospital in Manhattan, NY. As a youth Terry worked at Lee's Family Luncheonette while attending Park West High School in Manhattan.

Later in life, he went on to work for the Salvation Army and the MTA. He finished his career working on Beaver Street as a state Maintenance Worker until he retired in 2015. During his long career, Terry was fortunate to meet and maintain great friendships with amazing co-workers.

In addition to his formal career; if you knew Terry, you knew he loved being a "cab driver." In fact, that was one of the many hats he wore. He loved to help others and would get up to drive anyone anywhere in an instant. He also loved playing the lottery and did not miss a beat when it came down to it.

He is predeceased by his wife, Johnetta "Netta" Swans; son, Kasseen; sister, Eartha Lee; brothers, Mingo, and Cookie (Leslie); and nephew, Mingo.

Terry Williams is survived by his children, Tamiko, Terry "Day-Day", April, and Shaqueen; stepchildren, Bryan, Raynard, Dysell, and Javeiya; life partner, Shelly; two sisters, Barbara and Ada; nieces and nephews, Ti'anna Lee, Azzura'e, Melvin, Kasseem, Taylor, Dorian, Royal, Mercy, and Bryan; grandchildren, Jarrell, Uniece, Ali'yanah, Dyasia, and Kasine; brother-in-law, Derrick; longtime companion Angela; best friend, Clayton Lowrie; along with a host of other family members and friends.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you. My loved ones, oh so dear. But you see, the Master called me, His voice was very clear! I had made my reservation A heaven bound ticket for one, And I knew that He would call me When He felt my work was done. I know that your hearts are heavy Because I have gone away, But when the Master called me, I knew that I could not stay. Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you My loved ones, oh so dear, But, you see, the Master called me And, now I'm resting here. Yes, I've crossed on over to glory And to you all I say Just stay in the hands of Jesus And we'll meet again someday.
