Obituary

Robert M. Warren, Sr., 61 years old entered his eternal rest on May 15, 2022.

Robert (Bobby) was born in Jersey City on February 1, 1961 to the late Ralph and Betty (Sebron)Warren. He was educated by the Catholic and public school system. His love for and how he played basketball earned him the name Govan and led him to Dickerson High School where he graduated in 1980. A strong suggestion by his father led Bobby to enlist in the United States Army in 1983 where he honed his culinary skills. Not long after completing of his tour, he met Yolanda Green. They married June 25, 1988. Their union produced a daughter, Alyssa Marie and a son, Robert Michael Jr.

In 1992 started his career with the United States Postal Service while continuing his military career as an Army Reservist. It was while he was a reservist that his alter ego Drill Sergeant Warren emerged. Anyone who has met Drill Sergeant Warren know what I am talking about. Yet everyone who knows Bobby would describe him as a devoted father and family man, loyal friend, brutally honest, and disarmingly charming. It was this combination of charm and honesty along with his unique outlook on life that drew people to him. Bobby enjoyed life and lived it on his terms. Period. Some would be surprised to learn Bobby was really a homebody. Only two things could wake Bobby out of a deep sleep...bowling and a good poker game. What a man, what a man, what a man, what a mighty good man Bobby Warren was.

He leaves to mourn his passing his children, Alyssa and Robert, Jr, his grandchildren, Trevon and Reagan, his sister Ann, Yolanda Green-Warren, his maternal aunts Mary Setzer, Barbara Briggs, Patricia Sebron, Kathleen Washington, his cousins George and Lisa Setzer, Shelley Mainor-Harris, Kenneth and Terrence Mainor, Jazzmine Washington, his special friend, Sadie, and a long list of family members, friends he considered family, coworkers and acquaintances.
