Obituary

Julisha Queline Scott was born on November 10, 1984 in Charleston, South Carolina to parents Juluis A. Scott and Jacqueline Simmons Scott. She was the only child to the proud parents.

She attended Elementary and Junior high School in the Bronx and went on to graduate from Taft High School. At a young age, she and her mother joined Greater Faile Chapel Baptist Church. She didn't go to church as regularly as when she was younger but that did not sway her faith in God. She was a true child of God. She then went on to Interboro College graduating with an Associate's Degree as a Paralegal.

Julisha loved to sing. Her favorite singers were Whitney Houston and Aaliyah. She also liked to bowl, swim, of course be online and was an excellent cook. Her favorite foods were eggplant parmigiana, fried chicken, red rice and collard greens.

Julisha worked at Interboro College while attending classes and also worked for M&G's Restaurant. Her best passion in life were her children. She tried to show her children life's lessons and the importance of education. She always wanted the best for them. She taught them the correct ways of doing things. She was a kind and compassionate person.

She is predeceased by her grandparents, Hazel and Joseph Scott.

Julisha leaves to cherish her memories her children, Aaliyah and Rico; mother, Jacqueline Scott; father, Julius A. Scott; grandparents, David and Fanny Simmons, best friend, Tasha; her cousin that was like a sister, Chyna Doll; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, other relatives and friends too many to name.

*Here are Rico and Aaliyah's words that best describe the love for their mother. Rico mentioned, my mother would give her last dollar to Aaliyah and I. She always wanted us to be happy and there was nothing she wouldn't do for us.
We will miss her so much*

Acknowledgements
