OBITUARY

On September 2, 1967, God blessed the late George Armstrong and Essie L. Armstrong with a baby boy. They named him George Kevin Armstrong. As he spent 54 devoted years with family and friends, the Lord called him to his eternal home on Thursday May 19, 2022.

George, effectively known as KG, attended Chancellor Avenue Elementary School, later graduated from Arts High School Newark, N.J. In 1984, KG excelled in all subjects and was an exceptional athlete. Directly after graduating high school, he studied at Benedict College in Columbia, South Carolina. Shortly thereafter in college he joined the Air Force. After serving, he came to his hometown Newark NJ where he became a teacher for the youth. He then met the mother of his children Madari Jackson.

KG later relocated to Philadelphia, PA where he found his true passion as a drug counselor. Abruptly, his health started to fail. The loving KG was entertaining and always the star of the room. Everyone knew once he was present the party truly started. You would never know what he would do, but assured it would be all in good fun and you would never forget it. He had a smile and laugh that was so contagious that anyone was bound to love him. KG was an amazing, remarkable, and incredible soul that touched everyone he encountered. He helped and educated anyone around him.

KG is preceded in death by his father, George Armstrong. He leaves behind his beautiful daughter Tyra Armstrong, his loving son Tyrae Kevin Armstrong, his mother Essie Armstrong, tons of caring family and friends. KG leaves his treasured memories with his beloved children, nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.

Even though we will miss you eternally- heaven has gained our angel.
