Obituary

On August 26, 1932, God blessed the late Elijah Mitnaul and Eldora Sutton Mitnaul with a beautiful baby girl named Ola Be Mitnaul. She spent 89 lovely years with family and friends, before the lord called her to her eternal home on Monday May 16, 2022.

Ola attended East End Elementary School and graduated from Dillard High School in Goldsboro North Carolina in 1952. After graduation, she went to Cosmetology School in Charlotte, North Carolina. During this time, she met the love of her life, Daniel Williams and in 1960 married. Shortly after finishing Cosmetology school Ola moved to Newark, NJ.

While in New Jersey she worked various jobs until landing her passion working for the Newark Board of Education, until she retired. Ola joined First Timothy Baptist Church, located at 215 Chancellor Ave Newark, NJ. Ola is preceded in death by her husband Daniel Williams, two brothers, Elijah Jr., Lendell and Sister Eva May Smith. Leaving behind her sister Essie Armstrong, god child, plenty of nieces and nephews, and the rest of her beloved friends and family. Ola Mitnaul leaves her treasured memories with a special friend Della, God daughter Stacy Webb whom she loved dearly, and the family she blessed her spirit with forever.
