Obituary

Rev. James Pervis Holloway, Sr. was born on May 17, 1954 in Aiken, South Carolina to Annie Mae Harris Holloway and James Willie Holloway, and resided there for 18 years.

He attended the Aiken Graded School, Martha Schofield High School before graduating from Aiken High School with the class of 1972. Since relocating to Atlanta, GA in 1972, he has graduated from DeVry Technical where he specialized in Electronics Technology, and he earned a Bachelors of Religious Education from Bethany Bible College and Bethany Theological Seminary.

He answered God's call to the Gospel Ministry in January 1972, under the leadership of Rev. Willar H. Hightower, and has served as Pastor of the Sardis Baptist Church of Kennesaw, GA and the Serenity Baptist Church of Acworth/Kennesaw. GA. He is a member of the North Cobb Civitan Club and the International Conference of Police Chaplains, serving as Police Chaplain.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Deacon James Willie Holloway and Annie Mae Harris Holloway; two brothers, Bernard Holloway and Joseph Holloway.

He leaves to cherish precious memories a daughter, Teletha Michelle Wright; a son, James P. Holloway Jr.; one sister, Mary Holloway Davis; one brother, Rev. Harris M. Holloway (Iris); two aunts, Carrie J. Daniel and Phoebe Harris; three uncles, M.C. Harris, Frank Daniel, and Milton David Holloway;; and a host of grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, friends and neighbors.

JAMES
 COMPLETELY UNEXPLAINABLE
 Notices everything but won't say it
 THE MOST LOYAL FRIEND AND DISCREETEST LOVER → HAS ONE TOLERANCE AND ZERO →
 PROFESSIONAL AT LIES DETECTING | CAN OFFEND YOU WITH HIS HONESTY
 TENDS TO HOLD FEELINGS INSIDE
 HIS MIND WILL ALWAYS BE 10 STEPS AHEAD OF YOURS
 The Sweetest until provoked
 → LIVES BY HIS VERY OWN WAY →
 ★★★ A WARRIOR'S MENTALITY WITH A POET'S SOUL. ★★★
 NOT A FIGHTER BUT WILL KNOCK YOUR LIGHTS OUT.
