

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
 And found an empty place,
 He then looked down upon the earth
 And saw your tired face.
 He put his arms around you
 And lifted you to rest.
 God's garden must be beautiful
 He always takes the best.
 He knew that you were suffering He knew you were in pain.
 He knew that you would never
 Get well on earth again.
 He saw the road was getting rough
 And the hills were hard to climb.
 So he closed your weary eyelids And whispered, 'Peace be thine'.
 It broke our hearts to lose you
 But you didn't go alone,
 For part of us went with you
 The day God called you home.

Obituary

Robert Lee Warren was born January 12, 1954 in Terrell Dawson, Georgia to Raymond Warren and the late Trudie Bell Williams.

Robert met the love of his life, Martha and they were married October 6, 1986. Robert loved his family and took pride in taking care of them.

At an early age Robert gave his life to the Lord. In 1985 the Warren family joined First Bethal Baptist Church in Newark under the guidance of the late Rev. Grady James Jr. "Bobby Lee" as Pastor James would affectionately call Robert, was ordained as a Deacon by Rev. H. Grady III in 1998. Deacon Warren was dedicated, involved, and loyal with the church and served as chairman of the Deacons Board until his health issues limited his ability. Rev James referred to Deacon Warren as "My Deacon". Deacon Robert Lee Warren was faithful to God, loyal to the Pastor, available to the church and teachable by The Holy Spirit. Deacon Warren and Martha loved First Bethal and marched with the members into the New Church located in Irvington, NJ in 2010.

Robert Lee Warren Loved to have a great time, laugh with family and friends, and serve the Lord. He also had a passion for cars, watching his western movies, enjoyed attending his grandchildren football games, and loved to cook.

Robert Lee Warren is survived by his loving and devoted wife of 36 years; Martha Warren, 5 loving sons; Anthony, Calvin, Thomas, Tyrone, and Marcus Taylor; one daughter; 4 siblings; Mary Richardson, Raymond Warren, Jr., Geneva Leverett, and Dorothy Leverett. He also leaves to cherish his memories, a host of nephews, nieces, grandchildren, great nieces, great nephews, and great grandchildren.
