Obituary

William Henry Barber was born on January 25, 1963 at Jacobi Hospital in the Bronx, New York to Venetta Maxine Barber and William Henry Barber. He had two siblings, Venetta Elizabeth Barber-McMillian and his younger brother Jason Andrew Barber.

William, who was also known as "Big Will" to his friends and family, was a man of very few words but had a very strong presence. He was a big sports lover. His favorite team was the Jets. Will would lay in the bed all day watching TV especially football and anything with karate.

He had a few friends that would hang out with him on the bench drinking coffee and smoke cigarettes. He was an easy guy with very low maintenance and easy to be around, that's why he had such great friends. His last eleven months were spent between the hospital and nursing homes. He fought a long battle. He may be gone in flesh, but his spirit will live on in our hearts forever.

William is predeceased by his brother Jason Andrew Barber.

He is survived by his two children, Kenya Renee Brown and Brandon Darnell Jack; nieces and nephews, Terry Christopher, Jada Barber, Lonnie Barber, and Jason Branch; great-niece, Nashay Barber; brother-in-law, James McMillan and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other family members and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now; I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've now found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, and I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift-up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now and He set me free.*
