Obituary

Betty Fay Campbell was born in Town of Chester Castle, in the Parish of Hanover, in Jamaica W.I. She was the eighth of ten children. She was loved by her parents George and Jemima Campbell. She is survived by her daughters Staceyann Rookwood, Ruth Allen, and her only and last remaining sister Sheila Elaine Wallace, along with her grandchildren Christopher Rookwood and Naiya Rookwood, and her son-in-law Cecil Rookwood Jr, along with a host of nieces and nephews.

Betty immigrated to the United States in July of 1987, where she worked at Bronx Lebanon Hospital for over 25 years taking care of babies and mothers on the Maternity Ward. She was loved and appreciated for her dedicated service. Upon her retirement in 2013, Betty started hemodialysis in 2015 till her passing on May 25, 2022. She was a loving mother who took care of her daughters and never left their side. When she became a grandmother, it was automatic that she would be there for her grandkids as well. She was the cook of the family who made sure we were all fed, especially on Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays.

She was not a talkative person, but she was kind, generous and loving to all who came within her orbit. Her passing leaves a breach in our hearts that can never be filled, but we are comforted by the knowledge that she is safe in the arms of the Lord.

Sing the wondrous love of Jesus,
sing his mercy and his grace;
in the mansions bright and blessed he'll prepare for us a place.

Refrain:

When we all get to heaven,
what a day of rejoicing that will be!
When we all see Jesus
we'll sing and shout the victory.

While we walk the pilgrim pathway clouds will overspread the sky,
but when traveling days are over,
not a shadow, not a sigh. [Refrain]

Let us then be true and faithful,
trusting, serving every day;
just one glimpse of Him in glory
will the toils of life repay. [Refrain]

When We All Get to Heaven

O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hands hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed;

Refrain:

Then sings my soul, my Savior-God, to thee:
How great thou art! How great thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior-God, to thee:
How great thou art! How great thou art!

When through the woods and forest glades I wander,
and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
when I look down from lofty mountain grandeur
and hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze;
[Refrain]

And when I think that God, his Son not sparing, sent him to die, I scarce can take it in,
that on the cross my burden gladly bearing
he bled and died to take away my sin;
[Refrain]

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration
and there proclaim: "My God, how great thou art!"
[Refrain]

How Great Thou Art

precious Memories
