Obituary

Robin Lynn Thomas was born on May 15, 1965 in Brooklyn, New York. Her parents were Robert Bell (biological father) and Robert Thomas (adoptive father), her mother, Rev. Carolyn Thomas; and siblings, Sybil Johnson, Bobbie Rae Wilson, Cynthia Herring-Roby, Franche Lanee-Lewis, Robert Barnfield and Davina Ware.

Robin attended The High School of Music & Art; and she later found employment at Securitas USA, Tri-Beca, Lower Manhattan.

Robin met and married Mr. Levern Williams, Sr.; and they had a son, Levern Williams, Jr.; and two grandchildren, Niara Marie Williams and Saxton Alexander Levern Williams.

Thank you all for coming. I know that it has been some time since the initial incident. I would like to begin this conversation with you about “patient, perseverance and prayer.” I read in regard to this “patient, perseverance and prayer” about an Islamic word, Sabr. Sabir, one of its meanings implies self-restraint. This self-restraint and patient perseverance is not a form of being passive, rather an active striving in the way of truth. Discerning the gains in our losses, because God makes no mistakes. Seeing light when dark and having an understanding of life after death.

The first memorable quality or word that comes to mind to describe my mother would be “head-strong”. Head-strong, but loving. She enjoyed TV shows like Love and Hip, Black Ink Crew, The Real and Real Housewives of Atlanta to name a few. And she was not afraid to approach anyone she saw on television, like Spike Lee, Samuel L. Jackson, Ice-T and Latoya Jackson. She enjoyed music. Some of her favorites, were songs by Luther, “A House Is Not A Home”, “Lean Back” by Fat Joe and Remy and Bruno Mars, “That’s What I Like.” If I could think of any personality traits of hers, it would be, loving, down to earth, protective, nurturing, sensitive and stubborn.

Robin is survived by: her husband, Levern Williams, Sr.; son, Levern Williams, Jr.; granddaughter, Niara Marie Williams and grandson, Saxton Alexander Levern Williams. I believe she lived her best life due to our societal circumstances.

Praise the Lord! Lord let your steadfast love become our comfort according to your promise. If sadness of the loss of our daughter Robin diminishes our joy. We will remember the love we shared will bind us together always. Our love for you will never end.

I will always cherish and remember our mommy and me time, we vacationed once a year. Daddy and I will hold you dear in our hearts. For the past two years and five months, we don't know if pain was racking your body. We can't say what you may have been thinking, but God kept you for a reason. To purify your heart, preparing you for your eternal journey.

Psalm 46:10 - Be still and know that I am God.

Two years gave you time to reunite with God. At nine years old, you were baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

Acts 2:38 - Your sins was remissions to our Lord and Savior. You received the gift of the holy ghost. You met all the requirements it takes to enter in the eternal kingdom.

Hebrews 12:14 - Without holiness, no man will see the Lord.

John 3:7 - Jesus said, marvel not. That I said unto thee, ye must be born again. To our family, don't be sad or worry about Robin. She has paid her debt to life. Spent two years with God, restoring her soul. She was born again. Nine years old. Which made her a child of the King.

2 Corinthians 5:8 - We are confident. I say and willing, rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. Robin speak to the family today, let my passing be a wake up call for you.

2 Timothy 1:9 - God have saved us, with a holy calling, I answered His call because I met the requirements to eternal life. Family, Jesus is tenderly calling at the end of your journey. Will you be able to answer His eternal call? Get right with God, and do it now! Come together in love and unity, so you will be on one accord. Peace.

To my beloved son whom I love dearly, thanks. To my two grandchildren, my love for you is with my spirit. Mommy and daddy, I love you. You always wanted the best for me. To all my sisters and the rest of my family. Peace.

1 John 4:11 - Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. To God be the glory. The Lord be magnified. Amen!

With blessings and cherished memories,
(Mommy) Rev. Carolyn Thomas
(Daddy) Bro. Robert Thomas
