LIFE REFLECTIONS

Margaret Alice Moses-Perkins was born on March 31, 1931 in Timmonsville, South Carolina to the late Lewis and Rosa Moses. She peacefully transitioned on May 25, 2022.

Margaret came to the Lord at an early age and was a devoted member of the Garden of Prayer Church of God in Christ under the ministerial leadership of Reverend James Robinson. She continued to serve the Lord throughout her life until her passing.

Margaret received her formal education in the Cartersville school district where she graduated from Cartersville High School.

Margaret was united in marriage to Clyde Irving Perkins in 1948. Margaret went on to birth six beautiful children, John Calvin Perkins, Clyde Irving Perkins, Nathaniel Gregory Perkins, Barbara Jean Perkins, Steven Bines, and Moses Lesly Bines.

In 1949, Margaret and Clyde ventured to New York City to start their lives and begin their careers. In 1950, their first child, John, was born, however, this did not deter her from pursuing her career.

Margaret soon found employment and was trained in the Textile Industry, and thereafter, became a supervisor in product management in Teaneck, New Jersey, however, her passion was always set on working in the health care field.

In 1980, the opportunity arose for Margaret to work as a temporary fill-in home care-taker by her niece, Odessa McCauley, who was a New York City Registered Nurse. That opportunity turned into Margaret being trained as a full-time Home Health Attendant, which she excelled at being the most outstanding and requested Home Health Attendant by her company and patients.

Margaret worked as a Home Health Attendant for over 35 years. Throughout her studies and work life, Margaret managed to create her family which she loved dearly. She was a devoted and loving mother who gave birth to five sons and one daughter.

In addition to raising her family, Margaret was always considered a Good Samaritan, always helping those who were in need regardless of who they were. She was involved in her community whether it was at her position as an 1199 Union member or a supporter of the Meta Theatre Company: A Social Justice Theatre Company based in New Jersey.

Margaret was also a great mathematician who enjoyed poetry, and game shows such as, "Wheel of Fortune", "Jeopardy", and "Family Feud."

Margaret was not only a fantastic mother, she was also a wonderful grandmother to her eleven grandchildren, Nicole Perkins, Anika Perkins, Christopher Perkins, Danya Perkins-Jarvis, Jamal Perkins, Rachel Cannell, Paul Cannell, Steven Bines, Jr., Destiny Bines, Jasmine Bines, and Motaya Bines; her six great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Margaret enjoyed her daily conversations with her nieces, Mrs. Barbara Backus, Mrs. Geraldine Rivers, and Mrs. Odessa Williams; her sister, Hattie Bines; and granddaughter, Nicole Perkins.

Margaret is preceded in death by her parents and son, Steven Bines.

MY PEACE I GIVE TO YOU

“These things I have spoken to you while being present with you. But the Helper; the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you. Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. You have heard Me say to you, “I am going away and coming back to you. If you loved Me, you would rejoice because I said, “I am going to the Father; for My Father is greater than I.” - John 14:25 (King James Version)
