APPRECIATION

We would like to appreciate you and thank you sincerely for your prayers, support, show of love, and for standing with us this period as we deal with the death of Dr Mike Omotosho.

We say a big thank you to all those that joined us virtually via the online link provided. From your tributes, we are touched by your kind words and testimonies of how he touched your lives. To our friends and family members that travelled from far and wide to New Jersey, we appreciate you taking the time to be with us to beed him farewell, thank you for being there for us.

Even as we heal from our loss, we cannot forget to thank you for your generosity, we are immensely grateful for your expression of sympathy. No amount of gratitude can be enough to show appreciation for your support.

May your wells of kindness never run dry, may the Almighty God raise people that will stand by you and bless you abundantly in all you do.
