Obituary

Owyda Louise Butler was born on January 9, 1944. She was the fourth of 4 children. She entered eternal life on May 29, 2022, at Saint Barnabas Hospital in Livingston, New Jersey.

Owyda completed her school education in Birmingham, Alabama at Parker High School. In 1962, she moved to Orange, New Jersey. Owyda worked at Allstate Paperbox in Newark, New Jersey where she retired in 1988.

Owyda was a devoted member for over 10 years at The House of God Church in Orange, New Jersey. Owyda loved her church and church family and was always willing to lend a helping hand.

Owyda was very well known and loved by all she encountered. Although she only gave birth to three children, she had a big heart and was like a mother to many.

Owyda was preceded in death by her daughter Beverly Butler and her sister Cealy Copeland.

Owyda leaves behind to cherish her memory: Her Loving Husband, Curtis Butler Sr., her daughter Toria Entzminger (Antonio Entzinger) and her son Curtis Butler Jr. (Coco) (Rochelle Butler); 5 grandchildren, Terrence Thomas, Chanteau Entzminger, Al'Tariq Butler, Yusef Reddick, and Tatiana Francis; one great granddaughter Kaisley Reddick; her sister Loretta Bass of Birmingham, Alabama; one brother Joe Nunn of Birmingham, Alabama; two godsons, Aamir Qaaim and Darrell Rollins; one goddaughter Debbie Reynolds, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends, who loved and cared for her deeply.

Come to me

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He gently closed those loving eyes and whispered
“Come to me”

The days of toil and nights of pain.
The weary hours have passed
The patient gentle worn out frame.
Has found sweet rest at last.
Day and night we stood by her
And saw her in pain,
Anxiously awaiting her cure
But our waiting was in vain.
God who knoweth all things best.
Eased her suffering,
gave her rest
She is gone but not forgotten,
Never will our memories fade,
Sweetest thoughts of her will ever linger.
Round the place where she rests.
