Obituary

Errol John Leamy, was born to Eric and Inez Leamy on December 25th, 1953, in Kingston, Jamaica. According to his mom, he was “the greatest Christmas gift.” Errol and his siblings (Elaine “Patsy” Leamy and Eric Leamy) were brought up in the Catholic Church by their mother Inez. The family later attended Church of God of Prophecy at 36 Maxfield Avenue in Kingston, Jamaica.

Errol attended Whitfield Primary School and played the trumpet in the St. Peter’s Clever Crusaders Marching Band in Kingston, Jamaica. Upon arriving in New York, Errol attended a technical school in Manhattan where he graduated with top Honors. He also attended Bronx Community College then furthered his studies at Cornell University in Ithaca, NY. Upon graduating with a bachelor’s degree in Computer Engineering, Errol received offers from 5 separate firms and after much consideration, he decided to accept the assignment that took him to Massachusetts.

Early in his employment, a firm in California bought his contract, taking him across the country for some time. After the contract was brought back to Massachusetts, Errol continued his adventures as an adult. His engineering skills allowed him to travel across the world. During this time, Errol became fascinated with Ballroom dancing. Teachers, students and lifelong friends were in awe of his ballroom dancing techniques. They said, “Errol was the best dancer and the best dressed.” Errol loved to learn and always succeeded in whatever he engaged in, so it was no surprise that his martial arts skills earned him a black belt.

Errol was very quiet but always opened up around family and had the most contagious smile. Errol had a great respect and admiration for his mom and expressed his “deep appreciation for her sacrifices and her outstanding example as a spiritual mother. She encouraged her children to excel in whatever they pursued, as well as emphasized the importance of education.” His desire was to always make his mom happy and never have need of anything.

Errol leaves to mourn: Mother: Inez M. Leamey; Brother: Eric J. Leamy; Sisters: (Patsy) Elaine Leamy Moise and Erica Leamy McCray; Sister in Law: Beverly Leamy; Brother in Law: Fragrant Moise; also many in laws, The Thomas and Moise families. Nieces: Camilla, Geralda, Elizabeth (Beth), Lynzi and Ava; Nephews: Arthur, Eric (EJ), Kevin, and Little Kenny; Grandnieces: Saniyah, Tanya, Kynneddy, and Kaydance; Grandnephews: Kameron and Kaleb; Cousins: Claudette, Arnold, George, Joan, Esabia and more. Special friends: Hula, David, Linda, Janet, Judy, Julie and Gail. Many more friends and family across the United States and the globe.

God was faithful to Errol throughout his life and received his soul on May 17, 2022.

We pray peace for those left to mourn him.
