Obituary

Jameg Allah (Glenn Carzan) was born on April 30, 1953 to Sonny and Blanch Carzan in New York City.

Jameg graduated from Dewitt Clinton High School, Bronx, NY. He earned various degrees in Sociology and Psychology which helped him with his jobs in those fields.

Jameg was a very rambunctious but down to earth youth and person in general.

He began acquiring The Know of Self at a very young age in the Bronx and would write out his lessons in Mecca on park benches, and attend Universal Parliaments in Mecca and Medina with many other young Five Percenters in the 1960's.

He said, once he heard "Allah" (The Father) say, "The Black man is the True and Living God" that was it for him.

Upon learning and mastering his lessons he became a very steadfast and strong defender and advocate of The Five Percent Nation of Gods -n- Earths.

Jameg also was a very humorous brother that would make you laugh with him at some of the things he would say. Getting things together with his life—he left too soon!

Returning to his essence, he leaves to cherish his memories: his two brothers, Jamel and Terrance; his beloved niece, Salima; great nephews, Koran and Amire; great niece, Queen; a host of other dear family, including nieces, nephews and friends; and all his Brothers -n- Sisters of The Nation of Gods -n- Earths.

In the name of Allah, the Gracious, the Merciful.

Praise be to Allah, Lord of the Worlds.

The Most Gracious, the Most Merciful.

Master of the Day of Judgment.

It is You we worship, and upon You we call for help.

Guide us to the straight path.

The path of those You have blessed,
not of those against whom there is anger,
nor of those who are misguided.
