Obituary

Jerilyn Ann Pimble-Oliver was born in Bronx, New York on March 21, 1955, to the late Percy Christopher Pimble and Alle Virginia Pimble-Walls. She was educated in the New York City Public School system and attended PS 120, JHS 111 and Bushwick HS. She is a graduate of Kingsborough Community College where she received an Associates degree in Applied Science; and a certificate in Entrepreneurial Studies.

Jerilyn was a mother to Lisa Diane Stovall and Jason Oliver. She helped raise many children including Shyritta Conley and Tyerik Pimble. She was well loved by many people in the community including many children that she helped raise.

Jerilyn also known as Miss Jeri was known for her love of children. She was a kind care giver who dedicated her life to the growth and development of them. She was dedicated to her loving aunt, Hilda Wradge.

Jerilyn worked for Metropolitan Life and NYC Transit where she retired from. She was better known for her post-retirement work; molding the lives of young men and women in the Coney Island Community

Jerilyn loved to travel. Loved the lord and provided service to the church in any way she could. She was also a Notary Public and loved helping people with their taxes. She never hesitated to lend an ear, provide support, or help anyone in need no matter who they were.

Jerilyn went home to the Lord on June 5, 2022, in Brooklyn, New York. Preceded in death by son, Bryan Willam Pimble-Oliver, Father, Percy Christopher Pimble, mother, Virginia Pimble, brother Eric Pimble, sister, Mona Pimble, and two stepbrothers Calvin and Robert McCarter. Jerilyn leaves behind husband, Wilbert D. Oliver; her children: Jason Oliver and Lisa Stovall; her grandchildren: Jada Harper, Cody Oliver, Logan Oliver; daughter-in-law Sabrina DeJesus; two: Godchildren: Kim Vaughan and Damitrius Clark, her; mother-in-law Berdie Mae Oliver, her stepchildren: Hakeem Oliver, Chasity Wahington, Deldria Foster and Chanda Foster; her niece Shyritta Marie Conley-Martin and nephew Tyerik A. Pimble for whom she was a second mother. Jerilyn leaves behind seven sisters, six brothers, 2 stepsisters, and two stepbrothers: her sister and brother in laws a host of nieces, nephews, grand and great grand nieces and nephews, cousins and friends. Her best friend Danielle Ray and lifelong friend Miriam Colberg and a loving community who will miss her.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparast a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

St. John 14: 1-6

Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you, I go to prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

Acknowledgment

The family wishes to thank all of you for your prayers, messages of comfort and the many other acts of kindness shown during our hour of bereavement.

May God continue to bless you in a very special way.
