Obituary

Yvonne Hussain née Cooke, age 72 of Brentwood, New York died on Saturday, June 18, 2022 at Syosset Hospital, Nassau County.

Yvonne was born to the late Dudley and Veronica Cooke on January 3, 1950 in Georgetown, Guyana where she gained her primary and secondary education. It was during her school years she met and fell in love with Mohamed Amil Hussain who later became her husband up until six years ago when he passed. That union bore two distinguished young men, Kirk and Rawle Hussain, both of whom were born in Guyana.

Yvonne and her husband migrated to the United States of America with Rawle who was just a teenager. Yvonne, prior to migrating to the USA, was a very active member in her church. She wrote skits and short stories for her church groups and poems for both adults and kids. During her lifetime in the US, she did short courses at several institutions, and also attended the Fordham University in Manhattan where she gained her Diploma in Nursing and worked as a Nurse's Aide with Alleyne's Home Care Agency for more than twenty years, after which she ventured into entrepreneurship as a miner in the interior of Guyana which is currently being managed by her eldest son, Kirt.

Yvonne was a motivator, she possessed an authoritative voice, she was very influential, a person whom one could not differentiate whether she was ill or not by her voice and was profoundly in love with her family. She always motivated others to live their dreams and never give up! A source of strength to her siblings, children, family and friends.

Yvonne was survived by her two children Kirk and Rawle, siblings Vera, Denise, David Cooke and Samuel Greene, grandchildren Raheim, Lamar, Moravian and others, nieces, Michelle, Damali, Binta, Yoka and others, aunts Geraldine Barker and Agatha Cooke.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*

Acknowledgements

*The family wishes to acknowledge with deep appreciation
the many expressions of love, concern and kindness shown to their family during this hour of bereavement.*

May God Bless and Keep You!
