Obituary

Alejandro Wright was born on September 12, 1943 in Kingston, Jamaica, to parents Joseph and Winnifred Wright. He had eight siblings. Faye, Andrew, Ceta, Lana, Philip, Irma, Loretta and Daphne.

He was an avid learner; graduating from Kingston Technical School and attending the University of the West Indies. Alejandro would later complete his education after immigrating to the United States in 1971. He earned an Associates in Science and a Bachelors of Business Administration.

Alejandro married Sonia Hamilton in December 1973. They raised their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren in Queens, NY. He enjoyed spending time with his family, especially his grand and great grandchildren. Around Christmas and birthdays he could be counted on to purchase the latest video game or camera for his children and grandchildren.

He was a hard worker, often working two jobs to support his family. He was employed by various companies within the financial industry. He eventually accepted employment with Citigroup, where he remained until his retirement in 2006.

Alejandro is survived by his wife, Sonia Wright, children: Nadine Wright, Anthony Wright, Ingrid Wright, Tanya Aiken, Monique Wright, Khalila Wright, step-son Wayne Stephenson, nine grandchildren, four great grandchildren, cousin Daphne Roach, sister Faye Reynolds, brother Andrew Wright and a host of family and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God made for me
I took his hand, I heard him call
Then turned and bid farewell to all
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to sing, to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found my peace, at close of play
And if my parting left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah yes these things I too will miss
Be not burdened deep with sorrow
I wish you sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much
Good friends, good times
A loved one's touch
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with prolonged grief
Lift up your hearts and freely share me
God wants me now, he set me free*

Acknowledgements

The family would like to express our sincere appreciation for your love and support during our time of bereavement.
