Obituary

James "Jimi" Dunn was born September 27, 1972, on the Fort Monmouth military base in Monmouth County, NJ. He was a son, a brother, and a father, but mostly he was a friend to anyone who crossed his path.

It's no secret that Jimi led a tortured life. A difficult adolescence turned into an often painful adulthood. Yet through it all, he never let those he was closest to feel unloved, even if it meant keeping his distance to protect the ones he loved most. Jimi was a renaissance man, dabbling in everything from construction to hair but never really found his place. He often talked about becoming a drug counselor but couldn't get out of his way long enough to make that dream a reality.

He loved the Seattle music scene and often used music as a way to express himself when he couldn't find his own words. He was an avid reader and devoured any crime series you put in front of him. A childhood of playing with Matchbox toys led to a lifelong love of fast cars and bikes. Against his mother's wishes, he was a hardcore Dallas Cowboys fan and derived so much joy from mocking the NY Giants. His pure joy, however, was his children. Regardless of his ability to parent, they were the loves of his life. Anyone who knew him knew he loved them to the moon and back, if only from afar.

Though Jimi was taken from us way too soon, his family and friends take comfort in knowing that he is at peace. He will be dearly missed, but he is finally free.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
