Obituary

On August 20, 1938, Charles Homer Millender was born the third of five children to the late Minion and Dollie Strayhand Millender, of Talladega Alabama. He completed middle school in Talladega prior to the family's relocation to New York City in 1952. He completed his education at Chelsea Vocational High School where he studied Auto Mechanics. Upon graduation from High School Charles was drafted into the United States Army where he served as a Marksman for two years before being honorably discharged. He immediately began working in the food industry as a Butcher, where he met and married Lorraine Lloyd. They raised three children, Anthony, Michael and Michelle. Charles retired after 47 years as a Butcher. Charles was affectionately known as "Jocko" and enjoyed bowling, spending time with family and was an avid die-hard New York Mets Fan. In 2019 Charles and Lorraine relocated to Upstate New York. "Jocko" maintained his "straight-no chaser" attitude, until his passing in 2022.

Charles is predeceased by his sister, Melba Faye, and brothers-in-law James and Emmanuel.

Charles leaves to mourn, his wife Lorraine, two sons Anthony and Michael (Jacqueline), daughter Michelle, grandchildren Craig (Nicole), Christopher, Jacob, and Malia, siblings Larry (Inez), Geneva, Mallory (Jacqueline) and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Death is Only a Part of Life

We enter this world from "The Great Unknown"

And God gives each Spirit a form of its own

And endows this form with a heart and a soul

To spur man on to his ultimate goal...

For all men are born to return as they came

And birth and death are in essence the same

And man is born but to die and arise

For beyond this world in beauty there lies

The purpose of death which is but to gain

Life everlasting in God's great domain...

And no one need make this journey alone

For God has promised to take care of His own.
