Obituary

Anna Lee Izzard was born on February 14, 1942 to the late Wilson Izzard and Idell Footman Izzard.

She spent her early years in Salters and Kingstree, South Carolina where she learned the meanings of love and family. Born third, the eldest girl of eight children Anna Lee helped look after her younger brothers and sisters which prepared her to be the caring and loving mother, we all adore and will greatly miss.

In 1958 Anna Lee moved to New York City, New York where she earned a living working at The Plaza Hotel until she became ill 1969.

Anna Lee loved to worship at The Canaan Baptist Church in Harlem, NY where she was baptized in 1986.

She was a loving and God-fearing woman who cared for her family as well as those around her. Known to many as Ms. Anna Lee, she gained the admiration and respect of her neighborhood by being a motherly figure and opening her door for anyone who wanted a meal and conversation on any given day. Anna enjoyed working on puzzle books, and was very crafty as she enjoyed sewing and making patch quilts from different fabrics. She took pride in making blankets for her family especially her grandchildren.

Loved ones proceeded in death: two daughters Anna Mae in 2000, Cora Lee in 2008. Siblings, Henry Izzard, Relia Izzard and Salomon Izzard and one sister-in-law Flossie Izzard.

She leaves to cherish her memory two daughters Brenda Izzard of New York City, Tutisha (Edward) Maxwell of Englewood, NJ; four brothers and sisters William Izzard, Beatrice (James) McClary, Archie (Debbie) Izzard all of Thomasville, North Carolina, Catherine Hunter of Colombia, South Carolina; One sister-in-law Mary Lee Izzard of Kingstree, South Carolina; one brother-in-law Billy Hunter of Columbia, South Carolina; 11 grandchildren Christopher, Sharon, Abdul, Steffon (Toniann), Aaron, Toni, Saniyah, Sabriyah, Sarayah, Edward Jr., Sakai; four great grandchildren Sacora, Cory, Steffon Jr., and Ky'mani; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

In Tears We Saw You Sinking

In Tears We Saw You Sinking

In tears we saw you sinking

And watched you fade away;

Our hearts were almost broken,

Because we wanted you to stay,

But as we saw you sleeping,

So peaceful and free from pain,

How could we wish you back to earth,

To suffer here again.

Your Loving Children,

Brenda, Tutisha, Christopher, Sharon, Abdul, Steffon, Aaron, & Toni
