Obituary

Hivon Clair Cooper was born in 1956 on the 29th of March. She was one of four siblings, raised in Limon, Costa Rica, to her loving mother Florence Cooper and father Vincent Wilson. Hivon was raised in a house in a small town on top of a mountain. She spent most of her days traveling up and down the mountain, to and from school, as well as to church daily. Hivon migrated from Costa Rica to the United States at the tender age of 14, with her mother and one of her three brothers. This is where she began the next stages of her life.

Passionate and devoted to working, Hivon showed her greatest skills and creativity as a sales entrepreneur and vendor. Her ability to use her natural skills to sell anything was extraordinary. She used her strength, motivation, drive, and determination to earn a living and provide what she could for herself and her family. Her passion for working for herself and on her terms encompassed the entrepreneurial spirit that she had.

Hivon gave birth to six children, to whom she loved and cared for with the best of her heart. She was a spiritual woman that believed in the worship of Christ. On occasion, she would attend The Bible Church of Christ, and it ultimately became her chosen place of worship. Her love for the Lord showed in every relationship she had and with anyone she came in contact with.

Hivon's selfless love for everyone made her the person that she was. She was warmhearted and cared for people, even if they did her wrong, this was because she believed in forgiveness. She put the needs of everyone above her own. One thing that she did that showed the love she had for family, friends and others was that even in her times of struggle and despair, she always made it essential to contact every single one of her children and close friends every single day. She reached out to make sure everyone else was doing fine before she tended to herself. Hivon enjoyed being outside, listening to gospel music, and the sight of beautiful plants and flowers. She was filled with so much love, life, and laughter that it brought glory to each and everyone she met. That's who Hivon Claire Cooper was.

Hivon Clair Cooper departed this earth in the Bronx, NY on June 22, 2022, at the age of 66. Hivon was a caring mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She is survived by her children Giovanna, Cynthia, Karl, Stephanie, Tiffany, and Cory Abraham; her grandchildren, Joshua, Aaron, Kenneth, Jason, Sydney, Tymell, Christian, Jaylen, and Uriah. And also, her dear sister and friend Carmen, Al, Nadine and a host of other family and friends. Hivon will be lovingly remembered as we cherish the happy times and memories with one another.

Amazing Grace

Amazing grace! how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch; like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

The Lord hath promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun.

Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine;
Oh, what a foretaste of glory divine!
Heir of salvation, purchase of God,
Born of His Spirit, washed in His blood.

Refrain.

This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.
This is my story, this is my song,
Praising my Savior all the day long.

Perfect submission, perfect delight,
Visions of rapture now burst on my sight;
Angels descending, bring from above
Echoes of mercy, whispers of love. [Refrain]

Perfect submission, all is at rest,
I in my Savior am happy and blest;
Watching and waiting, looking above,
Filled with His goodness, lost in His love. [Refrain]

Blessed Assurance

Why should I feel discouraged,
Why should the shadows come,
Why should my heart be lonely,
And long for heav'n and home;

When Jesus is my portion?
My constant Friend is he;
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know he watches me;
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know he watches me.

Refrain.

I sing because I'm happy,
I sing because I'm free;
For his eye is on the sparrow,
And I know he watches me.

"Let not your heart be troubled,"
His tender word I hear,
And resting on his goodness,
I lose my doubts and fears;
Though by the path he leadeth,
But one step I may see;
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know he watches me;
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know he watches me. [Refrain]

Whenever I am tempted,
Whenever clouds arise;
When songs give place to sighing,
When hope within me dies,
I draw the closer to him,
From care he sets me free;
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know he watches me;
His eye is on the sparrow,
And I know he watches me. [Refrain]

His Eye Is on the Sparrow
