

If Tomorrow Starts Without Me

If tomorrow starts without me, and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes all filled with tears for me;
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today,
while thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you care for me, and how much I care for you, and each time that you think of me I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand, that an angel came and called my name and took me by the hand,
and said my place was ready in heaven far above,
and that I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly love.

Recessional

John Henry Jacobs was born on February 10th 1930 in Elizabeth, New Jersey, to the late Rufus Daniel Jacobs and Mary Linnie (Tyler) Jacobs. He answered God's call to come home on June 29th 2022, to be with his late brothers; Richard, Rufus Jr., Milton and Winzel Jacobs.

John was affectionally known as Dad, Pop-pop, Grampy and Uncle Johnny. John leaves behind to cherish his memories; his beloved wife Harriet Jacobs; his daughters Patricia Hall, Jacqueline Conover, Rosalyn Walker and his son Gregory Jacobs. He also leaves on this earth his one and only sister, Gloria Stewart; his sisters-in-law Barbara Taha, Colleen Smith-Simmons, Josephine Smith-McKnight and brothers-in-law; Joseph Smith, Raymond Smith Jr., Jethro Townes. John loved and is loved by his grandchildren, Shakeera Hall, Sherif Hall, Khalil Hall, Kalaya Walker, Keisha Hall, Nigel Conover and Nicole Conover. He also had several great-grandchildren and a whole host of nieces and nephews.

John attended Thomas Jefferson High School in Elizabeth, New Jersey after which he enlisted in the United States Army, where he served our country as a Radio Telephone Operator. He went on to work as a truck driver for General Floors for many years until his retirement. Once retired, he decided to get a job at Tuscan Dairy, where he worked for three years.

John was a Mason at the Eureka Masonic Lodge, where he enjoyed working with his Masonic brothers in helping people and the community.

He was a faithful member of Bethlehem Missionary Church in Roselle, New Jersey.

John loved to bowl and he was in various bowling leagues. He had a host of friends where he lived in Iselin, NJ.
