

"Come With Me"

*The Lord saw you getting tired,
And a cure was not to be,
So he put his arms around you.*

*With tearful eyes,
We watched you suffer,
And saw you fade away,
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.*

*A golden heart stopped beating,
A beautiful smile at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove,
He only takes the best.*

*It's lonesome here without you,
We miss you so each day,
Our lives aren't the same,
Since you went away.*

*When days are sad and lonely,
And everything goes wrong,
We seem to hear you whisper,
"Cheer up and carry on".*

*Each time we see your picture,
You seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry, I'm in God's keeping,
We'll meet again someday".*

Acknowledgement

We, the family, wish to express our deepest appreciation for your prayers and kind expressions of sympathy during the illness and passing of our loved one.

God's Garden

*God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So he closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, 'Peace be thine'.
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.*

Margaret Good Johnson the daughter of Gasaway and Captola Woods Good was born February 02, 1937 in Winston-Salem North Carolina.

Educated in the Winston-Salem School System, she graduated from Atkins High School. From there she attended North Carolina Central University, and became a member of the Alpha Chi Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Margaret graduated in 1960 with a Business Education degree from North Carolina Central University. She met and married Benjamin Johnson, Sr. and this union produced two sons, Benjamin Johnson, Jr. and Reginald Johnson.

After college Margaret worked at Knoxville College in Knoxville TN, and later at Winston-Salem Teacher's College, which became Winston-Salem State University (WSSU).

Margaret was an avid walker, she routinely walked 2 miles a day, until her health began to decline. She loved to play cards and was an excellent Bid Whist player. Margaret and her brother Haywood Good could run a "Boston" on you in no time! She also enjoyed visiting and hanging out with family and friends.

Margaret departed this life suddenly on Wednesday, June 29th, 2022 at Novant Forsyth Medical Hospital in Winston-Salem, NC. Leaving to cherish loving and lasting memories; her sons, Benjamin Johnson, Jr., Reginald (Kristen Becker) Johnson, Grandson Jacy, sister Elizabeth Good and a host other relatives and friends.
