

I NEVER SAID GOOD-BYE

I never got the chance to say I love you.
 I never got the chance to say I'll miss you.
 Nobody told me that you were going to die,
 It hurts, I never said GOOD-BYE.

Where are you now, please talk to me, Show yourself and let me see. I know that can't happen no matter how much I try,
 All I wanted to do is say GOOD-BYE.

I hope that you are happy wherever you are, I have you in my heart no matter how far. To the heavens above, I wish I could fly,
 Only to give you a warm GOOD-BYE.

I will remember you each day that I live, You were such a good person with so much to give. Such a privilege to have known you, no one can deny,
 I think it might be time to say GOOD-BYE.

I will keep with me the good times that we shared. I want you to know just how much I really cared Till we meet again, on God we must rely,
 I love you. I miss you and for now, GOOD-BYE.

OBITUARY

Malik Taylor was born December 15, 1979 in Newark, New Jersey to the late Michelle Taylor and late James Cottle. In his early years he attended Newark public schools and completed his education in East Orange school system.

Malik had a Passion for helping others and he showed it through the way he took care of his daughter and his brothers. He dedicated his life and was devoted to taking care his daughter Emani and everyone he loved. He was particularly proud of his daughter and her accomplishments in being accepted into one of the top Historically Black Colleges and graduating dean's list in her first year. She is his pride and joy, he worked hard to help support her as a loving father.

Malik was very humble, kindhearted, intelligent, determined and overall he was the Rock to our family. It wasn't anything he wouldn't do to help his loved ones.

Malik was currently working with Marley Spoon in Newark, New Jersey since January of 2019. He was currently working as a Senior Inventory Associate and had started his journey as a Production Associate. He was promoted within a few months due to his Hardwork, Dedication and Diligence. Malik was a true leader and a reliable team player which shows in the advancements and accomplishments from his work and personal life.

Malik was predeceased by, his grandmother Eva Lee Taylor and grandfather George Taylor, mother Michelle Taylor and father James Cottle).

Malik leaves to mourn his loving daughter Emani Taylor, his loving brothers Kesan Taylor, Karriam Taylor and Yusuf Taylor; his loving aunts Niece Knight, Judy Simmons, Carolyn Cottle and Shirley Sadler, his loving uncles Darrell Simmons, Dean Simmons, Robert Cottle and Jackie Cottle; and a host of loving cousins, niece's, nephews and other family members and friends.
