Obituary

Edward Lynch III, (affectionately called EddieBoy) was Born on June 28, 1962, to parents Linda (deceased) and Edward Lynch Jr. A true Bronx Native, Edward was born in Fordham Hospital, the first public hospital built in the Bronx.

Always embraced by the love of his siblings, Edward was one of four. His loving older sister Emma Ruth Lynch, who preceded him in death, his “cool, calm and collected” brother Clifford Lee, and his dearest younger sister Tanya Nicole Lynch-Smith.

Edward’s love for furthering his education started at P.S 90 in the Bronx and carried him through a lifetime of expanding his mind. From Chelsea Technical Education High School, Edward went on to earn numerous degrees and certificates in his desired trades. No one can forget his many years working in the Taino Towers in Manhattan, as the beloved maintenance man who was always lending a helping hand to anyone in need. His success and unmatched drive united him with his ultimate dream of owning his own business which he entitled “Eddie Fix-it”.

Edward was also well known by many for his amazing talent as a DJ. Known as DJ Eddie D. He was the originator of the infamous Phase 2 Crew. Edward and his close friends created history and are known as a staple in the start of hip-hop in the Bronx.

Handyman, tinkerer, mechanic, architect, DJ, technician, there are so many words one could use to describe Eddie’s skills, but one word that anyone who knew him would use is “Genius”.

Known as the man who could do it all, Edward’s love for his family and friends will forever burn bright in our hearts. Edward departs leaving behind his loved ones who miss him dearly every day; His father, Edward Lynch Jr., his sister Tanya, His wife, Brandi, and his children, Edward, Keith, Lawrence, Natasha, Edward, Devon, Ariel, Brianna, Breian, Lyric, Symphony, and La’Nya; Grandchildren, cousins, nieces, nephews, and extended family.

We could all depend on EddieBoy to be that shoulder to lean on whenever we needed him. He was dedicated to making sure all of his loved ones were showered with never-ending supporting affection, there was never a mountain too high for him. Bringing a smile to anyone’s face was never a hardship for Eddie, he did it naturally, with ease.

Know that when you hear thunderclap on a rainy day, it is Edward making the angels tear up in laughter with his plethora of jokes.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
