Obituary

Jessie Mae Davis departed her earthly home on July 5, 2022 to be with the Lord, after a lengthy illness.

She was born on February 3, 1937 in Bishopville, South Carolina, to the late Craften and Essie Joye. She was a member of Liberty Baptist Church in Bishopville, SC. She received her education in Bishopville, SC.

She was joined in matrimony to the late Roland Davis, Sr., and from this union came three daughters. They eventually moved from Baltimore to New York, where she worked as a Telephone Operator. In addition, she worked as a Housekeeping Supervisor, until she retired.

She was a Homemaker, she loved to cook and bake. She was also the matriarch of our family. A kind, gentle, sweet spirit, who truly will be missed. Jessie loved her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She leaves to cherish her memories: three daughters, Beverley Ferguson, Charlene Wiggins, and Belinda Ann Davis; grandchildren, Tamara (Pumpkin), Akemia (Poopie), and Norman (Champ); granddaughter-in-law, Jocelyn; great grandchildren, Lyric (Coco), Niya (Princess), Chase (Bubba), Brianna (Baby), Joseph (Peanut), Zion (Ginger), and another granddaughter on the way; great nieces, Diane Joyce and Althia Heath; nephew, Verndell Joye; nieces, Venetta Gill and Vivian Laws; a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins and friends; special friend, Annie Isaac; longtime family friend, Diane Scotton (Scotty); and close family friend, Frankie R. Casey, he was always there when you needed him.

No Tears In Heaven

There are no tears in Heaven,
Nor grief of any kind,
I leave this final teardrop
To those I've left behind.
Though absent from the body,
I'm present with the Lord,
The joy of my salvation is now my full reward. And just as God has promised, He's wiped my tears away, and nothing can compare to the wonder of that day.
So keep me in your memory
and know that up above.
There are no tears in Heaven,
instead there's only Love.
