Obituary

Joycelyn Victoria Bright Sampson, Born on the 31st of May 1960. Passed away at dawn June 28th 2022. She was the first born, the only girl of 5 brothers. Joyce didn't have any kids however, embraced Chimere and Sophia like her own. She was the cook and baker of the family. Her food and cakes were enjoyed by all. Joyce was loving, caring and generous. On occasion she would put you in your place but it was all out of love.

Joyce was loved by everyone including the elderly residents at Atria. Years after she retired, some still reached out to her.

Most didn't know Joyce loved music and dancing. That waistline sure could roll. We loved watching her having a good time.

We would have loved to have her around for many more years. To laugh, dance, talk, cook, bake, and travel with. But we could not watch her suffer any more. We didn't believe she would have the strength to wake up and say goodbye but she did. She fought her biggest fight until the end. Joyce is one of the strongest women we know. However, it is time to go home and rest our love. It is time to sleep and rest in peace. We will have you in our hearts and minds forever.

Just a Memory Away

I'm no longer by your side, but there's no need to weep; I've left sweet recollections, I'm hoping you will keep. Eternal joy and memories stay in our hearts forever, strengthening our special bond that parting cannot sever. Now it's time to journey on, so let your faith be strong, for I am in a better place....I'm home where I belong and if times of loneliness bring sorrow and dismay, don't despair, for I'm there...just a memory away..

Psalm 91

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress:
my God; in him will I trust.

Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,
and from the noisome pestilence.

He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust:
his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day;
Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness;
nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side,
and ten thousand at thy right hand;
but it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold and see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the Lord, which is my refuge,
even the most High, thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.

For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.
They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:
the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him: I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him: I will be with him in trouble;
I will deliver him, and honour him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and shew him my salvation.
