Obituary

Larry Young, sixty-six died of natural causes on July 14, 2022, at Harlem Hospital. He was born on November 9, 1955, to Isabelle Young in Brooklyn, New York. He is predeceased by his siblings, Joyce Young, Curtis Young and Richard Walters. They leave behind his mother, Isabelle Young, and their three sisters, Dolores Clark, Laura Young and Michelle Young.

After moving from Brooklyn, New York, in 1968, Larry was raised in Harlem. Growing up in a large family he found that he faced challenges early in his life. He prevailed his life's struggles, in spite of challenges.

Larry had an interest in various genres of music with rhythm and blues being at the top of his list. He pursued music in his teenage years with an interest in the guitar becoming aware of its impact on his favorite O'Jays albums. His energy when playing or listening to music placed a smile on his face. When older he taught his nephew how to play the guitar passing on his love of the instrument. He generated smiles transferring love, compassion and truth being purposeful without having a purpose. Upon his presence every room lit up. You've been gone for a brief time, and I miss you dearly.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
