

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Andton Jarbar McRae was born on March 6, 1981 to the late Peter Daniels and Idell McRae in Elizabeth, NJ. He departed this life on July 21, 2022.

Andton attended Elizabeth Public Schools graduating in 1999. He attended Union County College until 2003.

Andton was a hard-working man who was employed at Newark Liberty Airport as a baggage handler manager until he was laid off. From there he went on to do security work at Gateway One Security where he was a shift supervisor until his sickness would not allow him to work anymore.

On July 16, 2011 he married Terri McDowell and to this union was born a daughter, Londyn Miracle McRae.

Andton battled with kidney disease from 2014 until his untimely death. He was on the kidney transplant list and did dialysis at home four days a week while caring for his daughter, without a complaint. While waiting on the kidney list, he went back to school and received his associates degree in liberal studies.

He loved to read the bible and was an avid gamer. He was often heard playing video games as he did treatment at home. He also loved to sing and play the piano as well as spend time with family and friends. He loved his wife and adored his daughter.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his wife Terri and beautiful daughter Londyn. Sister Keisha (Ranell) Green in Wilmington, DE, sister in law Katrina (Maurice) McGowen of Bethlehem, PA, great aunts Essie McRae of Richmond, NC. and Emma McRae of Linden, NJ. Two uncles, Calvin McRae of Wilmington, DE and Keith McRae of Austin, Texas. Adorable nieces and nephews: Javion, Tianah, Marquis, and Samiyah McGowen of Bethlehem, PA. Imani, Aniyah, and Tahani Greene of Wilmington, DE. His sister-in-law Jennifer (Chris) Rives of Montclair, NJ, brothers in-law Kasie and Micah McDowell of Union, NJ, as well as father-in-law Ronnie McDowell and mother-in-law Tonya McDowell. He also leaves his best friend Jaison (Lauren) Campbell as well as two goddaughters Jalissa and Layla Campbell of Orange, NJ. He also leaves other friends, and cousins.

Andton was predeceased by his parents, maternal grandmother Carolyn McRae, his two brothers Maurice McGowen and Akhir Butler, and an uncle Christian Lee McRae.
