Obituary

Cleve Bernard Cropper was born on December 15th 1957 in St. Vincent and the Grenadines W.I. He was the son of the late Algie and Mabil Cropper.

Cleve lived in Trinidad for some years. Then migrated to the U.S.A in 1992. Lives in Hackensack then relocated to Paterson New Jersey. Cleve worked at General Trading Co. for over 20 years.

Cleve met his wife Maria 'Nica' in 2011 and got married in 2012 in the Philippines. Then had a son Ryan who was the joy of Cleve's life.

Cleve was full of life, his presence would lighten up the room, with his boisterous laugh. He loved to dance, listening to music, read books and he loves to baked.

Cleve was a kind person that tell you something that you didn't want to hear however you knew in the back of your mind he was right.

He was friendly and generous not only with monetary gifts, but wisdom, love and guidance that only a few were privy to.

Cleve will be remembered and missed, and will live on in many hearts for a lifetime.

Cleve Bernard Cropper Departed this life on Wednesday July 20th, 2022 surrounded by his beloved wife.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Maria 'Nica' Cropper; brothers, Frank Cropper and Levi Cropper in St. Vincent, Leon Cropper in Trinidad and Kenmore Cropper in Atlanta, GA; sister, Norma Cropper in St. Vincent; children, Avanelle Cropper in Trinidad, Kevin Cropper, Robert Fabruada (stepson) and Ryan Cropper here in U.S.; grandchildren, Kyair Gordon, lakya Gordon, Tajahnae Gordon here in U.S., Shivel Weekes, Simone Weekes, Sion Weekes, Amani Allen, Amari Allen and Aquisha Bascom in Trinidad; nephews, Richard Cropper, Nicholas Cropper and Andrew Cropper; as well as a sister-in-law, Jennifer Cropper; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*Miss Me
But Let Me Go*

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,

Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love
that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.

For this is a journey
that we all must take,
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.

When you are
lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.
