Obituary

Aaron Dickerson, Sr. was born in Sumter, South Carolina on September 24, 1950, to the late Nathaniel Dickerson and Louise Goodman Dickerson.

Aaron moved to New York City and completed his education at Benjamin Franklin High School. He met the love of his life, Pauline Davis in 1971 and married a few years later. Aaron was a very hardworking man and a great provider for his family. In 2017, Aaron retired from Atria Nursing Home. He was known to many as Aaron, Eric, Mr. D, Dad and Grandpa. He touched the lives and hearts of so many people during his time here. He loved to laugh, tell jokes and listen to music. He was also a man who believed in God and always kept his faith. Sadly, on July 23, 2022, God felt it was time to call Aaron home.

Aaron was preceded in death by: his parents; four sisters, Maggie Stephens, Ella White, Jean Conyors and Frances Thomas; four brothers, Nathaniel Dickerson, Jr., Sam Dickerson, Jimmy Dickerson and Albertus Dickerson.

Aaron is survived by: his wife, Pauline Davis Dickerson; his four children, Donnelle White, Wanda Davis Dickerson, Aaron Davis Dickerson, Jr. and Jimmy Davis Dickerson; one sister, Esther Cocklin of South Carolina; two daughters-in-law, Tina Davis Dickerson of New York City and Tammy White of South Carolina; four brothers-in-law, Paul Cocklin and Leroy Bellamy of South Carolina, Richard Bellamy and Roger Bellamy of New York City; six sisters-in-law, Shirley Ruiz, Carolyn Davis, Elizabeth Davis, Alicia Bellamy and Avounder Bellamy of New York City, and Virginia Dickerson of South Carolina; fourteen grandchildren and seven great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and close friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!

Acknowledgement

*The family acknowledges with deep appreciation all acts of kindness extended to them during this bereavement hour.
May God bless you for all your thoughtfulness and concern.*
