Obituary

Naquan Robinson was born in Brooklyn Hospital, Brooklyn, New York to parents, Michael Lee Bridges and Hattie Mae Payne.

Naquan attended New York City Public Schools in lower Manhattan. He also attended the Boys Club of New York in Manhattan where he was loved by many.

“He was known as a very loving and caring person. He would do anything to help you if he could. I became Naquan’s auntie in his young adult life, but knew him since he was 10 years old. We loved each other so much. He called me Mommy and sometimes he would call me Auntie.” - Raquel

Naquan was predeceased by his mother, Haddie Mae Payne.

He leaves to mourn: his father, Michael Lee Bridges; brothers, Michael Lee Payne, William Andrew Smith, Ronald Robinson of Union City, and Gerald Andre Seal; three sisters, Shaquana Monique Crowell, Wanda Robinson of NYC, Vanessa Clark (Halbert) of Ewing, NJ, Sabrina Cowan of NYC, and Shaneequa Michelle Smith; one nephew and one niece; “Auntie” Raquel Wilkes; fiancée, Trina; very dear friends, Manny and Jeff, who were there for Naquan many times throughout his struggles; and a host of cousins, aunts, uncles and other dear family and friends.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!
