OBITUARY

Herbert Glover, 73, of Maplewood NJ, passed away on July 28, 2022. Herbert, son of Herbert and Annie Singleton, was born in 1948 in Newark, NJ.

When not at home in his supervised apartment building, Herbert attended his day habilitation program in Orange, NJ where Herbert loved to socialize and do odd jobs with staff including landscaping and trash removal, among other tasks.

Herbert's favorite pastime was watching wrestling matches on TV with his roommate. When you saw Herbert watching one of these matches, he became so excited you thought Herbert was in the match himself. He enjoyed himself even more when he could attend a live match. Herbert also loved to watch police drama and home improvement TV shows, color or paint, practice his handwriting, use his tablet, and go bowling and shop for clothes.

Herbert was well known for his taste in very colorful clothes and his quick wit.

Herbert is survived by his sisters Frances Alexander, Diane Robinson, Gladys Beverly, and his brother Philip Singleton and a host of other relatives, and leaves behind a host of friends, housemates and staff at his supervised apartments.

He is predeceased by his mother Herbert Singleton, mother Annie Singleton and brother Fred Robinson.
