OBITUARY

David Joseph Williams was born to Joan Frances Headen and James LaFrank Williams on February 27, 1971 in Newark, NJ. He was the eldest of two brothers Barry Williams and Mark Williams. David grew up in Newark, NJ and graduated from Camden Street School and Irvington Technical High School.

David was a gentle giant and was so full of life and the life of the party. He loved hyking on people and making them laugh. It did not matter what mood a person was in, David knew how to make any situation hilarious. David made it his business to play the lottery and get scratch offs every day. If he missed a day, he made up for it. This was a past time that he enjoyed. He loved to dance and entertain family and friends. Thanksgiving and Christmas were his favorite holidays. Thanksgiving because he loved to eat. And Christmas, because he loved to eat and enjoyed watching his children opening their gifts. He also looked forward to his mother's attendance.

David loved to spend time at AC's barbershop where he would joke around with childhood friends. He also loved hanging out and going to watch sports with his bestie D. If you knew David you knew that he was a straight up COWBOYS fan! He would get prepared before he went to work for his co-workers talking smack when they would lose.

David worked at White Rose for 10 years before transitioning to University Hospital as a Facility Mechanic. He was proud to be a part of the UH family where he was liked by many and was nicknamed "Dboy".

When David Met Robin

David met Robin Doreen Owens in 2008 at the Vanity Night Club that was not too far from here. Family and friends always say they were meant to be because Robin was not planning on attending a party that evening. But she did and it was love at first sight for them both. They have been together ever since and married on December 12, 2020. They were overjoyed to welcome their two children Grier Analise Williams and David Joseph Williams, Jr. David was also a devoted father to his stepson Malachi Clyburn.

David leaves behind to cherish his memories: his loving wife Robin D. Williams; children, Grier Williams, David Williams and Malachi Clyburn; mother Joan Williams; siblings Barry Williams and Mark Williams; aunt Carol Headon; mother-in-law Georgette Clyburn and uncle-in-law Russell Owens; and a host of other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother Constance Headen and uncle James Headen.

JOHN 3:16

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God.
