Obituary

Denise Lenore Campbell was born in Brooklyn, NY on April 9, 1965 to Leroy (Dad) and Evelyn (mom) Campbell. Being the last child of four, she was the role model for her siblings.

As a teen, she attended Art & Design High School and graduated in 1984. She furthered her education and received a Bachelor's Degree in Business Management. She continued her career at Brooklyn Union that is known now as National Grid as a manager.

Denise was a member at Bethel Baptist Church in 1992, followed by Calvary Baptist Church in 2001. She married Allen Armstrong at Calvary Baptist Church where they both were members.

Denise loved her own personal time as much she enjoyed spending time with her grandson on weekends and with family and friends as well.

She loved watching The Big Bang Theory and Martin; two of her favorites shows. Not to mention, Denise loved to call her son Drew at least ten times a day to give him life lessons and get into jokes right before hanging up.

She was very understanding, intelligent, supportive and clever.

Denise L. Campbell is preceded in death by her parents: Leroy Sr Campbell (Dad) and Evelyn Campbell (Mom) Siblings: Jackie Kenneth Campbell (Brother), Leroy Campbell (Brother), Grandson: Andrew Jayden Guadalupe.

Reflective Writing

*The day the Lord called you home
A part of us went with you
So you didn't leave alone.
It broke our hearts to lose you
We didn't want to see you go
hope you knew we loved you
More than you will ever know.
Heaven must be so beautiful
He always take the best
He knew that you were tired
So He lifted you to rest.
Your pain and suffering is over
No more will it be known
We celebrate your new life
As you worship by God's throne*

*Romans 8:38-39 "For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, not anything else in all Creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
Amen.*
