Obituary

Trevor Hugh Thomas, also known as Scalla, was born in Kingston, Jamaica on December 10th, 1962, to Roy and Doreen Thomas. He attended Chetolah Park Primary school followed by Kingston High and Kingston Technical High school (KTH). He was an avid soccer fan and played on the Manning Cup team of KTH and the Wanderers football club in Portmore. Trevor grew up in Edgewater, Portmore and was very close to his younger brother David (Allah). As youngsters they spent most of their time together and were fiercely protective of each other.

In 1986 Trevor moved to Brooklyn, New York to join his parents and worked as a security personnel for numerous organizations over the years. He was a very quiet and unassuming person and enjoyed watching sports, listening to music, and taking walks.

Trevor was predeceased by his father Roy, and grandmothers Ruperta McLean and Evadney Davis. He leaves behind his dedicated mother Doreen, daughter Shanna, brothers Delroy and Allah, sisters Barbara and Juliet, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, and other relatives and friends.

We will miss you Trevor, rest in peace!
